CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, Nov. 30 .- | Special Telegram to the BEE.]-Wheat was very nervous to-day and at times exceedingly strong. Again it gave signs of weakness and toward the close of the long session it was inclined to heaviness, though the increasing volume of outside business formed a strong support to the market. Fluctuations were sharp and the range of prices, while not excessive, was sufficient to stimulate action and inspire more general speculation. The collapse of the local "plunger," who was short about 1,000,-000 bushels, according to common report, was followed early in the day by rapid buying to close out his trades, but as some of the heavyweight operators chanced at that time o be in the pit with their brookers, the market actually declined when it should have advanced in the natural order of events. Speculative offerings for local account were heavy, and on all the bulge, there were concerted raids by the bears, who were out in force and who were tireless in their attempts to depress values. They met with vigorous resistence, however. | New York was a steady and heavy buyer and orders from other eastern cities and points in the interior, generally on the long side, were more than ordinarily numerous. Commission merchants are very generally disposed to look upon this as a harbinger of better times and broader markets. The market opened strong at vesterday's closing range, first trades being on a basis of 76% c for December, 77% c for January, and 83%c for May. The price dropped off rapidly under heavy speculative offerings $4@34c and within half an hour from the opening December sold at 75½c. January at 76½c and May at 8½c. December subsequently advanced to 76½ca76½c. January to 77½c and May to 8½½c. After that the main range for December was 75½ca76c, and for May 84½ca85½c. One o'clock quotations were 76½c for December, 76½c for January and 83½ca85½c for May. This range showed a loss on the day of ½c. Corn was quiet and firm until late in the morning, when it became rather tired, and last trades on the long session were a decline from yesterday of ½c. The corn crowd kept close watch on the wheat indicator, and corn moved in sympathy with that cereal most of the time, though within narrow limits. Plenty of property was for sale on hard spots, though it did not seem as though a special effort was making to sell the market off. Oats were just a trifle "bully" this morning for a time, but later on the market dropped back, and May closed at 41c—yesterday's last price. There was another active day in provisions. The hog market was rather feverish and transactions were on a large scale. Heavy local houses were extensive opening December sold at 75%c. January at provisions. The hog market was rather feverish and transactions were on a large scale. Heavy local houses were extensive sellers of January and February pork, packers being being conspicuous in the market. It is generally understood that the large purchases yesterday for New York account, one firm alone having bought 40,000 barrels. The country was a buyer on a rather pretentious scale. Offerings were so very liberal, however, that values gave way under pressure, bork selling off 30c were so very liberal, however, that values gave way under pressure, pork selling off 30c and ribs 123c during the morning session, and closing barely steady at nearly bottom prices. The activity was principally in pork, though ribs were by no means neglected. Lard excited little or no interest.

2:30 p. m.—At the opening of the afternoon session there was heavy realizing in wheat. The start at 2 o'clock was 1/2c lower than at 1 o'clock on the belief that Ream had sold nearly 500,000 busiels. Corn was easier in sympathy. Provisions were easier on free selling. Wheat—Weak and lower at 751/26. Setling. CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.- | Special Telegram to the BEE. |-CATTLE.-The market to-day was very weak and less active than on vesterday. Shippers were doing very little. A very few particularly best cattle sold at or about yes terday's rate, but the general run of cattle was lower, and there were many cattle of nearly all grades for which no bid was received. Good fat 1400 to 1520 lb, cattle in many cases went over without a bid. Trade was very slow and values decidedly weak all around. Shipping steers, 1350 to 1500 lbs $4.30@5,00; 1:300 to 1350 lbs, $3,80@4.25; 950 to 1200 ibs, $3.25@3.90. Range cattle offerings to-day were moderate, the quality was poor and values were weak at yesterdays decline. Sales: Texas cattle—20 cows, 692 lbs., $215; 56 steers, 755 lbs., $2.50; 192 cows, 715 lbs., $210; 95 steers, 774 lbs., $2.50. Northern rangers: 145 Wyoming Texas, 1,002 lbs., $215; 44 cows, 960 lbs., $2,75; 88 Wyoming, 1,104 lbs., $3,30. Hoos-The market opened with a big boom, sending prices up 5@10c on prime packing and fancy assorted heavy, a few loads of the latter making $4.15@4.20, with best packing sorts at $3.90@1.10 and common at $5.00@5.70. Light sorts were neglected and values unsettled, uneven selling within a range of $3.50.65.60 for high and $3.7060.80 for porkers. The general market was about be lower at the close than at the opening.

There was great excitement and prices rose rapidly in the morning, but the advance culminated shortly before noon, when something very like is stampede occurred. Prices fluctuated vio lently and the transactions were simply enormous. Money was again manipulated up to 10 per cent and room traders by raiding up to 10 per cent and room traders by raiding every weak point materially aided the detime. Reading was again the most importAnt stock on the list and its sales exceeded even Saturdays large total. The upward movement culminated before 1 p. m., and a general decline followed, in which all the strong stocks of the morning were noticable. A fractional raily was followed by another decided break in the last hour and the market thusly closed on the raily, fewrish evelind. decided break in the last hour and the market nually closed on the rally, feverish, excited and irregular. Notwithstanding the large advance for the day up to 1 p. m., in many stocks, not a single one on the active list re-corded a net advance for the entire day. Chattanooga, however, is up 3 per cent. Richmond and West Point lost 5 per cent and Michigan Central 2 per cent.

The Career of Bullard, the Noted Bank Operator.

His Vow to Unite Again with the Rich Widow Terry, His Children's Mother,

New York Journal: Charles Bullard now serving a term in prison in Belgium for burglary, is the husband of Mrs. Kate Louise Terry, the putative widow of Dom Pedro Juan Terry, who has just left her $5,000,000, of which he died possessed, from a fortune of $55,000,000 inherited from his father, Tomaso Terry, South American sugar planter and slave trader.

Bullard has vowed that when he be comes a free man again he will claim the now wealthy Kate Bullard, or Terry, his two children's mother. He is a native of Connecticut and forty-nine years old. He was a butcher by trade, but gave up the occupation and devoted his ability to the robbing of banks and safes, for which he inherited a taste from his grandfather, who was a burglar in a small way.

The grandson became one of the bold-est operators that had ever handled a jimmy or drilled a safe. When he was thirty-two years old he was engaged with Max Shinburn, an alleged German baron, Ike Marsh and others in breaking into the Ocean bank. They hired a basement at the corner or Broadway and Fulton street under the bank and opposite St. Paul's church, and started a junk shop as a cover to their plans. They bored their way up into the bank, and one Monday morning in 1868, when the officials opened the doors for business, they discovered $800,000 missing. The robbers were nearly a moath at the work, and the bank was ruined by the loss The money was lost in gambling by the thieves. Shinburn got rid of his in

In 1869 Bullard planned the robbery of the safe of the Merchants' Express com-pany. He was aided by Marsh. He was then known as Charles E. Thompson. They concealed themselves in the baggage car of the train of the Hudson River railroad in which the safe was stored and rifled it of $100,000. The messenger was liseovered bound and gagged in the car and was accused of being an accomplice of the robbers. The latter fled to Canada Bullard was extradited from there and lodged in the jail at White Plains. He was there only a short time when he made his escape by boring under the walls. Charley Forrester, a fellow-operator, conveyed to him the tools with which he worked his way out.

Bullard became known among his associates by the name of 'Piano Charley' because of his musical skill. He was also able to talk German and French among his other accomplishments.

The accomplished criminal journeved to England and in Liverpoot made the acquaintance of Kate Flynn, a barmaic at the Washington hotel in that city. The two were married and went to Paris where Piano Charley opened the Ameri can bar, in the Rue Scribe, which he made a popular resort and gambling place for American visitors to the French capital. The police raided him in 1872 and he was sentenced to a year in the galleys. His wife moved to Brooklys and he joined her later on. In 1876 h was implicated in the robbery of the Boyleston, Mass., bank, for which he was sentenced to twenty years' imprisonment. He escaped from the Concord iail in 1878 and went to Canada where he was subsequently arrested for the burglary of the Kingston bank. He served a short sentence for that undertaking and the next heard of him was in Belgium. There he re-formed the acquaintance of Shinburn, who planned the robbery of a small bank at Vivers, in that country. He was to receive $60,00 as his share of the $100,000 of the bank's money. The two were caught before they could execute their designs and are now in Belgian prisons. The present Mrs. Terry and former Mrs. Bullard, the big burglar's wife, is now in Paris, but is expected here soon. She is immensely rich, but whether she will ever consent to reunite with her convict busband those Bullard's various robberies are est mated to have amounted to $3,000,000. His share was mostly lost at cards.
